PCC DECISION

REF 2016/023

Decision Title: Contract extension for Arrest Intervention Referral Service

Decision summary:

To extend the contract with Swanswell for delivery of the Arrest Intervention Referral Service in custody by one year (1st April 2017 – 31st March 2018).

Background or reference to supporting papers:

Swanswell currently deliver the Arrest Intervention Referral Service in custody, having done so since 1st April 2014. The service was commissioned for a three year period, with the option to extend for two separate one year periods. This decision is to take up the option to extend the service for the first of those two additional one year periods, to cover 1st April. Following negotiation and discussion with the provider the funding to deliver this service will be reduced to £617,000 for this period. The core elements of the service will not be affected and will continue.
