The screenshot shows the Avon and Somerset Police website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Home', 'About', 'Services', 'Your Area', 'News', and 'Contact Us'. Below this, the 'Your Area' section is active, displaying 'Minehead'. A sub-header reads: 'Contact your local policing team. Find opportunities to meet the team and view or contribute to community policing priorities for your area.' A 'Contact team' button is visible. The team members listed are:

- Daniel Bishop, Neighbourhood Policing Team Sergeant
- Mark Middleton-Smith, Police Community Support Officer
- Katherine Williams, Police Community Support Officer
- Sharon Baker, Partnership Support Officer

On the right side of the page, there is an 'Events' section for September 2019, listing 'Taster Somerset Business Partnership' and several 'Talking Cafes - Multi Agency Information Cafes'. Below that is a 'Policing priorities' section with 'Community Speedwatch' and 'Neighbourhood Watch Scheme'.

The screenshot shows the Twitter profile for ASPolice West Somerset (@ASPWSomerset). The profile picture is the Avon and Somerset Constabulary crest. The bio reads: 'Tweets from the West Somerset Police Team. Not monitored 24/7. Don't report crime on Twitter. Report crime here: bit.ly/OTDSIF'. The profile statistics are: 974 Tweets, 235 Following, 1,477 Followers, and 337 Likes. A recent tweet from August 24th says: 'The Sgt and some of the team are at Watchet Festival this weekend. What a perfect weekend weather wise for everyone attending! Come and say hi if you see us on patrol 🚔👮🏻👮🏻👮🏻'. The tweet includes a collage of photos showing police officers at the festival and a large photo of a festival path with colorful tents.
