

Notes of Bristol City Council Bi-annual

27th April 2018 – 15:45 – 16:45

Attendees: Sue Mountstevens; John Smith; Marvin Rees; Alison Comley

- 1) Update on actions – JS had circulated the Bristol local Police and Crime Plan to Asher Craig.
- 2) Budget/Finance update – SM updated on the latest Home Office settlement and the increased flexibility on precept levels. SM's intention was to protect and ring fence Neighbourhood teams including PCSOs within the Constabulary. The intention is to recruit 300 officers in the next year. MR offered to facilitate an event for police recruitment similar to the event that they had recently organised for magistrates recruitment for BME candidates. JS agreed to raise this with Andy Bennett/Constabulary. Update: This offer was flagged to recruitment team
Action: MR stated that BCC were intending to have some more joint budget meetings with partners – JS said that he would be keen to participate in these when they were organised.

AC updated on the latest budget position and in particular the PCSO funding position had now been resolved and additional money had been found to continue to support Bristol YOT without recourse to the Police and Crime fund. JS stated that linked to the recent discussions about YOT funding there had been discussions about whether or not to have wider area wide discussion and JS stated he was happy to get involved in those.

- 3) Police and Crime Plan/One City Plan - MR updated on the latest position on the One City Plan. The interim Director of Public Health, [REDACTED], was now leading on the One City Plan and there was a refocus on collating the plans that were already in place rather than doing additional consultation. MR also outlined his plans around the Bristol City Fund – MR said he was keen to involve the OPCC in this work and JS said he would be happy to participate. MR mentioned the City of Hope event being held at City Hall on 5th May – JS said he was attending on behalf of SM who was on leave.
- 4) St Pauls Carnival – The desktop review event had taken place the previous week and had gone well. SM and MR were keen to meet with the St Pauls Carnival team as well as senior police and council representatives to get an update on the latest position.
Action: JS agreed to liaise with MR and team about this event.
- 5) Collaboration – MR referred to the NHS Leadership Academy work which was being carried out including people such as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]
- 6) AOB – MR raised the issue of land dwellers which was causing particular tensions in Easton. Action: JS agreed to raise with AB. Completed

MR raised the global parliament of Mayors which is taking place on October 21st – 23rd 2018 and there would be 80 Mayors from across the world in attendance.
Action: JS agreed to flag this to AB in relation to security issues.
